Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD entitled The 40 Year Old Virgin is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years.

The DVD contains a feature previously examined and classified as a 35mm film by the Classification Office. The film was classified objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years with the descriptive note "Contains offensive language, drug use and sexual content that may offend". This decision (No. 501705) was registered on 22 September 2005. The DVD's feature is 10 min longer than that of the film. This is due to extended scenes in the feature which are also found elsewhere on the DVD. Time difference may also be due to extra notices found on the DVD and the difference in the two formats.

The extra components on the DVD include several notices, bonus scenes, deleted scenes and two trailers for other features. The additional components found on the DVD do not provide grounds to alter the classification given to the original publication.
